

UK CONSTRUCTION INDUSTRY BUILDING A GREENER FUTURE of construction companies now operate a low carbon or carbon reduction strategy

58%

regularly measure and monitor their carbon footprint

51%

claim that their clients require them to record and act on carbon emissions as project key performance indicators have systems and processes in place to reduce fuel consumption across their vehicle fleet of these use a telematics system to do so

23%

The biggest causes of unnecessary fuel consumption?

road traffic congestion vehicle idling

inefficient routing

vehicle speeding

unauthorised vehicle use

The green agenda is important throughout the supply chain

74%

favour suppliers who offer low carbon products or can demonstrate green credentials still believe the industry as a whole could do more to reduce carbon emissions